

Margaret A. Minch, DVM
866 Flat Rock Road
Markleysburg, PA 15459-1108
724-329-1686/304-276-1499 margaret.minch@mail.wvu.edu

Education

The Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine – Columbus, OH 1995
Doctor of Veterinary Medicine
Awards – Salsbury Scholarship, presented to senior veterinary students exhibiting leadership, scholarship, initiative and perseverance.

Wheeling Jesuit University – Wheeling, WV 1991
Bachelor of Science, Biology
Awards – Frank S. Haig Science Award, presented for outstanding senior project.

Work/Service Experience

Casselman Veterinary Services, Inc – Grantsville, MD 21536 1995-2006
- Associate veterinarian in mixed animal practice with focus on Dairy Production Medicine
- Responsibilities: regular herd health visits to individual dairy farms, medical/surgical treatment of sick animals, regulatory work, 4H presentations, client advisory teams, client meetings, emergency calls after hours, and mentoring of several pre-veterinary and veterinary students.

West Virginia University Division of Animal and Nutritional Sciences – Morgantown, WV

- Clinical Veterinarian 2006-2015
 - o Responsible for veterinary care program at Morgantown and Reedsville Farms, including vaccination programs, clinical treatments and regulatory work on beef/dairy cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, and occasionally goats.
- Clinical Veterinarian – back-up coverage for current clinical vet 2015-current
 - o Responsibilities remain as described above, in part-time capacity
- Clinical Assistant Professor, Animal & Nutritional Sciences 2006-2012
- Clinical Associate Professor, Animal & Nutritional Sciences 2012-2015
- Teaching Associate Professor, Animal & Nutritional Sciences 2015-current
 - Teaching responsibilities in the division include the following:
 - o VETS 401 Veterinary Anatomy 3 hrs 100%
 - o VETS 403 Vet Anatomy with laboratory 1 hr 100%
 - o AVS 409 Food Animal Diseases 50%
 - o AVS 411 Dairy Heifer Management 3 hrs 25%
 - o VETS 411 Laboratory Animal Medicine 3 hrs 100%
 - o AVS 251 Principles of Animal Science 4 hrs 15%
 - o AVS/VETS 491 Professional Field Experience 3 hrs 50%
 - o AVS 412 Lambing Management 3 hrs 2%
- Undergraduate advisor – approximately 45 pre-vet students on official record
 - o Additional assistance for 15-20 pre-vet students from other advisors
- Letters of Recommendation (~10/year) – VMCAS, AMCAS, grad schools 2007-current
- Member, Davis-Michael Oversight Committee 2006-current
- Member, Kidder Scholarship Selection Committee 2006-current
- Member, Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee 2006-current

- Interim ACUC Chair Jan – Aug 2011
- Presenter, Annual Davis-Michael Career Day 2010-current
- Member, WV Veterinary Medical Assoc Board of Directors 2016-current
 - Region 6 representative - North Central WV (10 counties)
- Member, WVU Academic Advising Development Collaborative 2016-2017
- Member, Compliance Director Search Committee 2009
- Member, Assist. Director of OLAR/clinical vet Search Committee 2010
- Member, Pre-Health Professions Advising Committee 2010-2015
- Co-organizer, Davis-Michael 4H Day (Woloshuk, Dailey) 2009-2015

Related experience

- FAMACHA certification - technique for monitoring parasitism in sheep flocks current
- Bioterrorism Training – sponsored by Louisiana State University, LA 2008
One-day training course held in Moorefield, WV, sponsored by WVDA
- Dairy Production Medicine Certificate Course – Penn State University 1998-2001
Three-year course designed to enhance problem-solving skills in production medicine, ranging from nutrition to health, reproduction, facilities and management concerns.
- Public Responsibility in Medicine & Research (PRIM&R) – attend annual meeting 2010-2013
- Emerging & Exotic Diseases, Iowa State University, online course 2012

Licenses

- DVM – WV – 1995 - current
- PA – 1995 – current
- MD – 1995 - 2014

Professional Memberships

- WV Veterinary Medical Association
- PA Veterinary Medical Association
- American Veterinary Medical Association