WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY DAVIS COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE, NATURAL RESOURCES AND DESIGN

Master's Degree PLAN OF STUDY

Name	Student ID No.
Degree Sought
Planned Completion Date_
Colleges and universities p	reviously attended, dates attended, and degrees received:
		GPA_
		GPA
		GPA
WVU guidelines state that accepted for credit at WVU transfer credits can be acce	ther institutions towards DCANRD Master's Degree: a maximum of 12 semester hours of transfer credits from oth of the graduate programs requiring 30-41 semester hours. Up pted for graduate programs requiring 42 or more semester had graduate programs must be approved by the student's graduate programs must be approved by the stude	to 18 semester hou ours. The acceptance	rs of
Course	Institution	Semester Hour	Grade

DIRECTIONS

- 1. Due date The Master's degree plan of study is required prior to or at the end of the first semester enrolled, excluding summer sessions. This form must be typewritten or computer generated, completed in full, and signed by the student and all members of his/her graduate committee.
- 2. When approved by the Davis College Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, it becomes a binding agreement among the student, committee, and the WVU Davis College of Agriculture, Natural Resources and Design.
- 3. Requests for changes to the plan of study must be approved by the Davis College Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. All changes to the plan of study (course additions, deletions, and replacements, etc.) must be submitted in writing and approved by all members of the graduate committee.

Courses to be Completed at WVU for this Degree

Course Number	Course Title	Credits	Grade
Total Graduate Credit Hours:

Total Graduate Credit Hours:
Credit Hours at 400 Level:	% of Total
Credit Hours at 500+ Level:	% of Total

REQUIREMENTS

- 1. Students must show at least 30 graduate level credits (400 level or above) on the plan of study.
- 2. No more than 40% of the total coursework on the plan of study may be at the 400 level.
- 3. Thesis Option: Research and thesis credits are limited to a total of 6 credits combined. Seminar, internship and independent study credits are limited to 6 total hours combined.
- 4. Non-Thesis Option: Research and problem report credits are limited to a total of 3 credits combined. Seminar, internship and independent study credits are limited to 12 total credits combined.

Approved by the Graduate Committee: Name Typed	Please Check one:	Thesis	Non-Thesis
Name Typed Signature Date -Major Professor The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of this or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chair must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the commit is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or designe of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of it chair may require that activities already completed (such as prospectus approval meeting) be repeated. Master's committee outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults status. Master's committees of programs not requiring a thesis generally consist of no fewer than three members, one of whom must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Name Typed	Proposed Topics for the	nesis, problem report (or scholarly activity:
Name Typed Signature Date -Major Professor The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of this or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chair must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the commit is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or designe of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of it chair may require that activities already completed (such as prospectus approval meeting) be repeated. Master's committee outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults status. Master's committees of programs not requiring a thesis generally consist of no fewer than three members, one of whom must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Name Typed
Name Typed Signature Date -Major Professor The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of this or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chair must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the commit is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or designe of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of it chair may require that activities already completed (such as prospectus approval meeting) be repeated. Master's committee and the student's program. Master's committees of brograms one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults status. Master's committees of programs not requiring a thesis generally consist of no fewer than three members, one of whom must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: // Signature Date Approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs: Dr. Todd Petty	Approved by the Gradu	ate Committee:		-
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the chair may require that activities already completed (such as prospectus approval meeting) be repeated. Master's committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facult status. Master's committees of programs not requiring a thesis generally consist of no fewer than three members, one of whom must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Davis College Division Director: Name Typed			Signature	Date
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the call of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults who must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed	rvanie	Турса	Signature	Bute
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the call of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults who must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the call of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults who must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the call of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults who must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed
The majority of any graduate committee must be members of the graduate faculty, including the chair of the committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chai must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committe is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the call of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facults who must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed committee. No more than one person may be a nonmember of the graduate faculty. No family member may serve the graduate committee of his or her relative. Co-chairs of committees are allowed, but at least one of the co-chair must be a regular member of the graduate faculty. All graduate committees are subject to the approval of the chairperson or designee of the division and the dean or designee of the college. Once a graduate committee has be officially established, it will not be necessary to alter it if the graduate faculty status of member(s) of the committee is changed. Any changes in the membership of a graduate thesis committee require approval of the dean or design of the college or school. Depending on circumstances and the judgment of the dean or designee, replacement of the chair may require that activities already completed (such as prospectus approval meeting) be repeated. Master's committees consist of no fewer than three members. It is recommended that at least one member of the committee be from outside the student's program. Master's committees of students choosing a thesis option must chaired by a regular graduate faculty member and the majority of the committee must have regular graduate facult status. Master's committees of programs not requiring a thesis generally consist of no fewer than three members, one of whom must be a regular graduate faculty member. No more than one person may be a non-member of the graduate faculty, and the nonmember cannot chair or advise. Approved by the Student: Mame Typed	-Major	Professor
Approved by the Davis College Division Director: Name Typed Signature Date	is changed. Any change of the college or school chair may require that a Master's committees co- committee be from outs chaired by a regular gra status. Master's commi- one of whom must be a graduate faculty, and the	s in the membership of Depending on circums ctivities already comple nsist of no fewer than t ide the student's progra duate faculty member a tees of programs not re regular graduate faculty e nonmember cannot ch	a graduate thesis committee require appropriate and the judgment of the dean or deted (such as prospectus approval meeting three members. It is recommended that at a m. Master's committees of students choosened the majority of the committee must have quiring a thesis generally consist of no few member. No more than one person may	roval of the dean or designee designee, replacement of the g) be repeated. t least one member of the osing a thesis option must be ave regular graduate faculty ewer than three members,
Name Typed Signature Date Approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs: Dr. Todd Petty /	Name Typed		Signature	Date
Approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs: Dr. Todd Petty /	Approved by the Davis	College Division Direc	tor:
Approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs: Dr. Todd Petty /				/
Dr. Todd Petty	Name Typed		Signature	Date
	Approved by the Assoc	iate Dean for Academic	Affairs:
	Dr. Todd Petty			/
	Name Typed		Signature	Date

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

- 1. To remain in good academic standing, a student must have an overall graduate transcript GPA of 2.75 or higher. Students who fall below this level are subject to suspension by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs at the end of each academic year.
- 2. A student must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher for all coursework in the plan of study to graduate and a GPA of 2.75 or higher on all courses taken as a graduate student.

3. Appeals must be submitted to the Academic Standards Committee of the Davis College.

(Submit to the Davis College Graduate Student Records Office)